

ONYX AND THE RED LIPS

CINEMATIC

- Cinematic -

Here's a new day, who's looking the same
Oh no here comes that rain again
I close my eyes and start to dream of leaving
Reality doesn't really suit me
I need to make it a little bit dramatic
Something more cinematic Three, two, one, action!

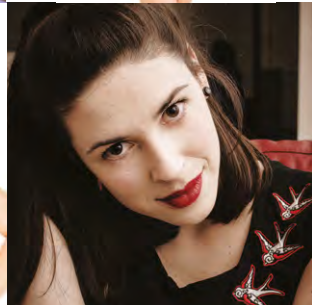

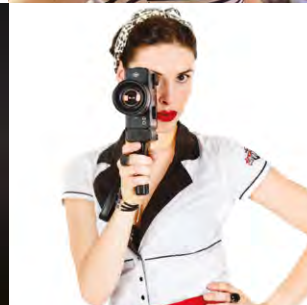

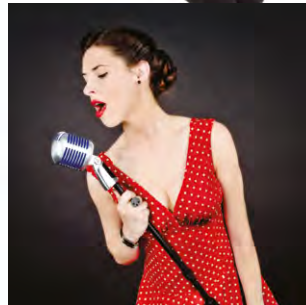

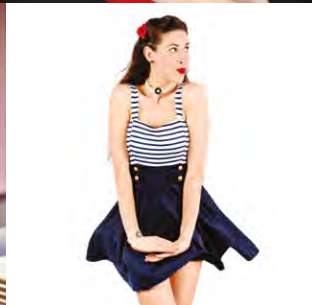

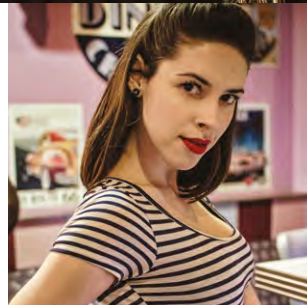

Chorus:-

I create my own world, just everything I've learned
I rewrite my on life
Looking for adrenaline, turn my life into a film
Discovering a new path to drive
I step into this world flying like a bird
I redesign every line I define what is mine
Crafting with my hand an imaginary land
Re-inventing things existing
To make my life more exciting
I want to be just like in a movie
My mind is my new territory
Where I can find who I want to be
Are you scared of following me?

- Chorus -

Telling the stories I want to hear
I am the hero and have no fear
Of the unknown, of being alone
Far from home, on my own.

- Chorus -

- Place On Earth -

My memory has remain my heart is feeling the pain
Remember, laying my head in the sand
I don't want to leave this land
Do I have to say goodbye, please tell me it's a lie
I say, I say yeah I'll get by, no I don't want to cry

- Chorus -

Give me my sun my piece of heaven
I want a rebirth on this place on earth
I have to try to reach the sky
It doesn't seem to be just a dream
This is the place to be, I close my eyes and see
This is where I belong, no I can't be wrong
You have to let it be, it feels so great to be free
I can tell this is my home, here I don't feel alone

I'm thrown to the ground it's hard to heal the wounds
Why am I just born in the wrong place
I think it's just a waste
I need to keep the faith but feel so powerless
I'll die, if I don't fight to get the right to live my life

- Chorus -

My will won't fade in the dark and I believe in my heart
I'll come back, I think it's just a start I want to play my part
I keep a light in my heart and smile through the night
Here is my real kingdom for me the true freedom

- Lucky Day -

Chorus x 2:

*It's a lucky day, no need to remember of yesterday
Today is a new day, I think it's finally my time to play
Not going away, too many times I let people tell me what to say
But now for sure, I'll do things my own way*

*No matter if I'm not the first in line I don't mind being sidelined
I don't wait for you to give me your approval to shine
I think I can just be myself, don't need to always hold my breath
Why do you want me to pretend I am someone else
Now I can say, that I am okay, that I am following my way
And everyday, I am saying come what may*

- Chorus -

*Now for the first time I want to decide
I choose to see the bright side*

*It's my life and I want to enjoy a part of the ride
And I am filled with happiness, no I'm not looking for success
No I am searching for something that can make sense
No more delay, no hide away, I am here and I will stay
And right away, I am saying come what may*

- Chorus -

*And I think it's my time, don't worry I'll be fine
I am clear in my mind, all the doubts are behind
And I look up to the sky and think I'm so lucky to be alive
And it helps me realize that sometime I just need to smile
So now I smile, with my beautiful smile*

- You Sail -

Your burden is heavy, let me help you to carry
You have been here to listen
You were there for me now it's my turn
It's time for me to care
For me you're a treasure, that I can even measure
I'll support you no matter the cost
Don't want you to think that you are lost
It's time for you to share

Take your time to climb but never resign, you will be fine
Carry on, don't worry you're not alone, I'll bring you home
Believe me, there is no easy way to flee
And I am on your side, I'll be your guide you just have.

- Chorus -

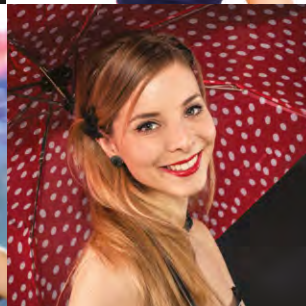

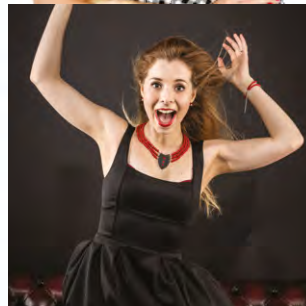

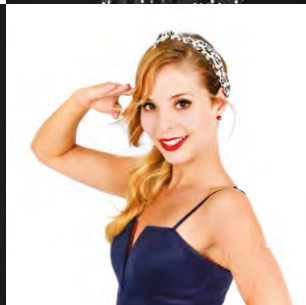

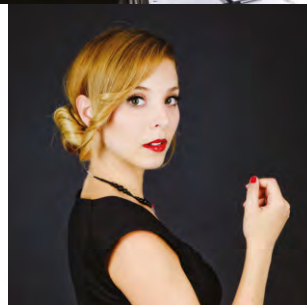

To listen and let my song heal the wounds of your heart
I'll always be here in the dark
Please have no fear, wipe the tears of your eyes
You have a true sail I admire

I stand up thanks to you, I believe in what you do
I can't stand to see you sad
Knowing you like this, makes me mad, I could give you all
Believe me you're worth it, for your trust I'll never quit
Don't be afraid to be honest, and get the sadness off your chest
I think I've heard your call

Take your time to climb but never resign, you will be fine
Carry on, don't worry you're not alone, I'll bring you home
Believe me, there is no easy way to flee
And I am on your side, I'll be your guide you just have to...

- Chorus x2 -

To listen and let my song heal the wounds of your heart
I'll always be there in the dark
Please have no fear, wipe the tears of your eyes
You have a true sail I admire

- Rise -

You've gotta go, it's time for you to show
That you can raise your voice, that you will make a judicious choice
You've gotta say that you won't obey
That they've gotta say, you'll never run away
You're allowed, you've got a reason to be proud, say out loud...

- Chorus -

No more cries now, it's your time to rise, you've gotta realise
You've heard too many lies, you start to open up your eyes
You will stand, you've gotta raise your hand, now yell, this is the end
You're strong enough to break your chains
Fight back, now react, bring to light all things kept in the dark
Now you're the right, you've gotta let things out
Don't give up, you're the guts to finally speaking up
They've got to understand, you've got the power to command
You can't let go, they really gotta know
Whatever they could expect, they've gotta show you some respect
Don't be afraid, there is nothing to be ashamed
You've gotta choose, you've got nothing to lose
Refuse you'll never even be abused, no excuses

- Chorus -

You've gotta tell, you have been through hell, freedom is not for sale
I wanna hear you yell, Don't go with the flow
Too many things to blow, you've gotta learn how to say no

Don't say, you will rise, open up your eyes
You will stand, you've gotta raise your hands
Fight back, now react, bring to light
All the deep things that you've kept in the dark
Now bring to light, you've gotta let things out
Don't give up, you're the guts to finally speaking up
They've got to understand, you've got the power to command
You've gotta say no, I know you can't let go, it's time for you to show

- Echo -

I stay silent, I feel so small
Some moments are eternal
This place seems timeless
It helps me keep the faith
Have no shame to be a dreamer
Being here is all I desire
Now my soul can rest in peace
After all the tears I released

- Chorus -

Listen to the sound of my heart breathing
Let my voice resound, let me sing
Hear the echo of my sorrow
Going away from my way

I'm bathed in light, I feel so bright
Here are memories I like
Time is suspended
Things are like I remember
Have no shame to be a dreamer
Being here is all I desire
Now my soul can rest in peace
After all the tears I released

- Chorus -

Listen to the sound of my heart breathing
Let my voice resound, let me sing
Hear the echo of my sorrow
Going away from my way

- Sorry -

Do you know the meaning of over?
 Sorry, I don't need you in my life. Goodbye!
 Let me tell you, we'll never ever get through
 You're wasting my time, it's my turn to shine
 You used to be a better liar with me
 Now you're pathetic, can't you get over it?

- Chorus -

Sorry, enough for me, I'm sorry, you're killing me
 Stop hunting me, go * yourself for me
 I'm sorry, enough for me
 I'll never ever be your wife, go get yourself a life

Don't hold me back, no I don't ever react
 Let get this clear for once, you're not what I want
 Don't ever put me, in any of your stories
 Can you just forget us, there's no "us" no "disaus"

Sorry, enough for me, I'm sorry, you're killing me
 Stop hunting me, go * yourself for me
 I'm sorry, enough for me

I'll never ever be your wife, go get yourself a life

Ah, you're still here, I told you to disappear
 To get out of my sight could you please make things right
 Please please take the keys, go away I need to breathe
 I'm telling you with no doubt, I want you to get the * out

- Chorus -

Follow Me -

*I've waited too long
Thought you could make decisions on your own
Thought you were strong
But finally, you just keep going on
I need to feel your breath near to me
I'm still waiting a man who believes in me*

Chorus -

*Hey, I'm looking for you man
Don't turn your eyes from me
Hey, I'm standing in the way
Waiting for you to be free
Don't let your fear take you from me
Hey, I won't let you go away
You just have to follow me*

*Everything you need
Is to take my hand so what are you waiting for
I want you to lead
I'm not just a friend, I'm so eager for more
I need someone to stop my heart bleeding
A shoulder to cry on is everything I need*

Chorus -

*I know I'm expecting so much from you
But here I am, and here is what I want you to do
I wish you could just take me away
You know you merely have one thing to say*

Chorus -

- Cherry Lips -

The gave you everything she had, but she was young and dumb
She'd just turned 21, she didn't care to hang around
So when the shit came down, why she was nowhere to be found
This life can turn a good girl bad
She was the sweetest thing that you had ever seen

- Chorus -

You're such a delicate boy, in the hysterical realm
Of an emotional landslide, in physical terms

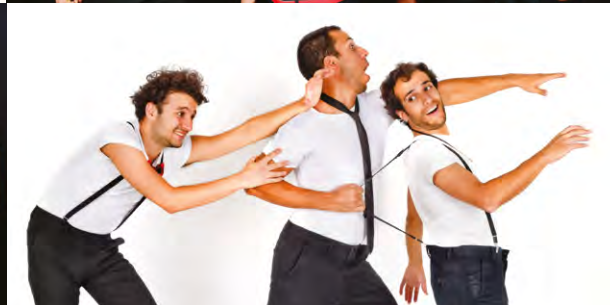

With your cherry lips and golden curls
You could make grown men gasp when you go walking past
And in your hot pant and high heels
They could not believe that such a body was for rent
It seemed like rainbow would appear
Whenever you came near, the cloud would disappear
Because you looked just like a girl
Your baby blues would flash and suddenly a spell was cast

- Chorus -

You hold a candle in your heart
You shine the light on hidden parts
You make the whole world want to dance
You bought yourself a second chance

Go baby go go, we're right behind you
Go baby go go, we're looking at you
Go baby go go, we're right behind you
Go baby go baby, yeah we're looking at you

- Chorus -

- Enraille -

I wrote to you so many times, but never sent anything, I kept my distance for you
But when my world collapsed and I lost everything

You were the only one I felt I really could talk to
I know in the end there's no one to blame, you don't have to explain
I'll say again, I won't complain, I knew the rules and lost the game
So when the pain is overwhelming and I need to tell you things
I will pretend you take my hand and listen until the end

Don't know how to live, don't know how to grieve
I know there's nothing to forgive, but got nothing left but love to give

Chorus I: I'm gonna die, if I don't exist to your eyes

I could give you all but I feel invisible
I feel like I wasn't enough for you, but I can't stop how I feel for you
But this is something I think I always knew

I'm deeply hurt I can't breathe no more I don't know I could sell for you so strongly
My heart stopped, doesn't work anymore in my life no one made me feel so happy
I don't know if what I'm fighting for, blow on earth could I be convinced who heartedly
I never could have imagined I could be so sure that you actually felt something for me

I'm overwhelmed with sadness, I try to fight but it need to express
I don't know how to deal with this loneliness and I feel angry after myself
Wish I was strong enough to not care, to be able to live without you there
I try hard to not fall in to despair, but my heart seems unable to repair
But I understand I did nothing wrong, for you I just wasn't the one
Now I need to moving on

Chorus II: Cause no matter how hard I try, I'll never exist to your eyes

I could have gave you all but I was invisible

I don't think I should feel sorry, cause you revealed the best part of me
I can't deny that you'll always be the best thing that happened to me

Even though my feelings remains, and nothing will ever be the same
I hope one day you'll be proud of what I became

Chorus III: I will survive, one day I won't live for your eyes

You'll stay in my soul, you remain unforgettable

There's one thing I never said to you I couldn't say, it I wasn't allowed to
But I suppose you always knew, I loved you.
